MONADNOCK FOLKLORE SOCIETY CONTRA DANCES

The Monadnock Folklore Society inaugurated a Second-Saturday contra dance series in the Nelson Town Hall in 2007. The monthly dances have been very successful, presenting a wide range of musicians & callers, and further enhancing Nelson's reputation as the contra dance capital of the world.

The hall opens at 7:30 p.m. for a workshop – a chance for newcomers to learn some basic steps or a refresher for folks who might not have danced for a while. The main dance starts at 8:00 p.m. and goes until 11:00 p.m. Admission is $8 for adults and $6 for senior citizens and students. Questions about the dance? Call Lisa Sieverts at 827-3044.

Upcoming Schedule

Date	Caller	Musicians
July 11	Chris Weiler	Nor'easter
August 8	Dudley Laufman	Two Fiddles
September 12	Adina Gordon	Celtic Cladda

Check out the MFS web site for calendar information for many folk music & dance events in the greater Monadnock Region (not just Nelson activities). The site is regularly updated with new articles, local lore, profiles of musicians, and recordings. <http://www.monadnockfolk.org>
